

MISS MARPLE'S WORDS

Solve the clues below and write the answers to read across in their correct places in the larger grid. All answers have NINE letters.

When this grid is complete, take the letters in the keycoded squares and write them in the smaller grid. When the smaller grid is complete, the words will reveal a quotation by Miss Marple from The Body in the Library. The quotation begins, 'A well-bred girl would never turn up . . .'

In addition, rearrange the letters in the centre shaded column reading down (column E) to spell out the name of another major character in the book.
